

Introduction

The librarians and staff have compiled a list of online resources to help you with your research. To browse these sites please scroll down the page or use the main topic headings found on the left navigation bar.

Restricted Access Databases

These databases can only be accessed within the School of Law or through the use of a password or proxy server.

General Legal Resources

Mostly searchable directory sites and online legal encyclopedias.

Federal Legal Resources

Official websites of federal government agencies and free online access to official government documents (e.g. Code of Federal Regulations, Federal Register, and the United States Code).

Indiana Legal Resources

Official websites of Indiana state agencies and free online access to official government documents (e.g. Court Rules, Indiana Caselaw, and Indiana regulations).

Resources for Other States

Links and directory sites for all 50 states.

International Legal Resources

Primary materials and research guides for international legal research.

Legal News

Current information on federal and state courts, politics, business, education, and more.

General Information \(Non-legal\)

A variety of online sources for statistical data and online reference sources.

Search Engines

A variety of general and law-specific search engines.

Evaluating Information Online

Sites and articles to assist you in verifying the authenticity of online information.